1.   Introduction

OffAlready is PalmOS® system utility to protect your Palm from accidentally turning on while in your pocket or in storage and to conserve battery power. The main four hard keys, power button, voice record, camera or any activity that causes your Palm to wake up while its in sleep mode OffAlready will immediately turn the Palm off. The only way to turn on your Palm is by pressing the combination of two hard keys together eg: DateBook and MemoPad hard keys. You can set your own combination. OffAlready also gives you a sense of limited security where other users have to know the combination to turn on the Palm.
